In general orders No. 5, given out to-Commander-in-chief Tanner of the G. A. R. outlines the program for the national encampment, which convenes at Minneapolis on August 13. He says:
"On the evening of Tuesday, August 14, there will be a semi-official meeting to receive addresses from State and city officials, from the committee of arrangements, and greetings from our auxiliary societies. Responses will be made by comrades designated by the com-mander-in-chief. The addresses will be interspersed with singing, recitations, and instrumental music, under the direction of the committee of arrange

"This meeting will be held in one of the largest halls in the city of Minneapolis, and will be open to the public. It is the purpose to have presented at this meeting all matters of a semi-of-ficial nature, which usually come before the encampment at the opening session so that the regular business can be taken up promptly when the encamp

Two Miles of Parade.

The annual parade, in connection with the national encampment, will be on Wednesday, August 15, commencing to move at 19 a. m. sharp, and will be composed exclusively of Grand Army comrades, as posts, or individuals, and their accompanying organizations, the usual military bands, and a marching flag. The parade will be over well-paved smooth and level streets, and will not be more than two miles in length.

"The Department of Illinois, by right of seniority, will have the right of the line; other desartments will follow in order of seniority of date of charters. The entertaining department will take position on the left of the line. The commander-in-chief has accepted the proffer of Columbia Post, No. 706, Department of Illinois, as his personal escert.

The business sessions of the encampment will begin on Thursday, August 16, at 9 a.m. sharp, Richard A. McCurdy, ex-president of the Mutual; Robert H. McCurdy, his son, Louis A. Thebaud, his son-in-law, and Charles H. Raymond, the nominal head of the Metropolitan agency, defendants in the action for restitution, never believed that suits would be brought against them by the company.

As soon as they realized there was a grim earnestness about the proceedings there was a hurried consultation, and it was decided that the best possible thing was to settle, if possible. The court revelations, it was suggested, would be of the most unsavory character, and in the vent of a judgment the sums recovered would be tremendous.
